Mr. Michael A. Aronson
Indiana University Press
Tenth and Morton Streets
Bloomington, Indiana 47401

Dear Mr. Aronson:

I hope this proposal will meet Dr. Spurway's requirement (per her letter of 4/1) and yours.

1. Draft an irrevocable power of attorney-in-fact, authorizing me to act on her behalf, in form suitable to you for present purposes.
2. I will then negotiate a contract with you as outlined in your letter to her. I believe your offer is quite appropriate to the circumstances.
3. This contract should have the proviso that accumulated royalties will remain in your hands, to be paid out only as I may direct, to Spurway, or to her nominee or to any charitable cause. After five years, the balance will be paid over to her. This provision will, I believe, protect her and myself from being charged with constructive income not actually received.
4. In consideration thereof you will not restrict her rights of separate publication in India.

Sincerely yours,

Joshua Lederberg
